Propel Your Prosperity with GEC!

Ginn Economic Consulting (GEC) empowers leaders, organizations, and policymakers to develop effective approaches and policies by providing actionable economic insights grounded in free-market principles. We advise influential think tanks and policy leaders nationwide, with a proven record of crafting innovative ideas and policies that promote economic growth, individual liberty, and long-term prosperity.

Our mission is to equip leaders with the tools and strategies that let people prosper.

GEC was established in 2022 near Austin, Texas, as a boutique firm specializing in high-impact, results-driven policy consulting. GEC President Vance Ginn, Ph.D., brings decades of experience lecturing at multiple universities, serving as chief economist in the first Trump White House's Office of Management and Budget from June 2019 to May 2020, and contributing to more than 20 free-market think tanks nationwide. GEC guides clients in defining the narrative for key policy areas at the federal, state, and local government levels, with a focus on developing sound policies for top issues.

Clients trust GEC as a valuable resource for conducting high-quality research, driving meaningful reform, and fostering innovative ideas.

About GEC's President, Vance Ginn

Vance Ginn, Ph.D., is a nationally recognized economist and dedicated advocate for free-market efforts that promote economic growth, opportunity, and fiscal responsibility. As founder of Ginn Economic Consulting and host of the Let People Prosper Show podcast starting in 2022, Vance collaborates with more than 20 influential organizations across America to advance a pro-growth approach that lets people prosper. His expertise spans across sustainable budgeting, tax relief, labor markets, education freedom, patient empowerment, and more, crafting key local, state, and federal reforms.

From June 2019 to May 2020, he served as the associate director of economic policy, also known as the chief economist, at the Office of Management and Budget of the first Trump White House, where he worked on key policy initiatives. Frequently featured in major outlets such as Fox Business and The Wall Street Journal, Dr. Ginn's insights translate complex economic topics into simple, actionable paths to alleviate poverty.

Raised in a lower-income, single-mother household in South Houston, Texas, he is a first-generation college graduate who earned his doctorate in economics from Texas Tech University. He resides near Austin, Texas, with his family and is dedicated to promoting prosperity and freedom for all.
